

Pediatric Spiritual and Emotional Care Conference

What About the Children? A Multidisciplinary Perspective

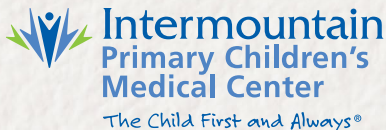

Supporting children and their families through the journey of life, death and bereavement.

When: November 1, 2013

Where: University Guest House

Cost: $40

Target audience: Clinicians, caregivers and volunteers involved in the care of children and their families in hospitals, home health agencies, hospices and bereavement programs: social workers, child life specialists, palliative care teams, bereavement counselors, chaplains, spiritual care volunteers, home health and hospice staff.

For more information, log on to:

<https://intermountainhealthcare.org/classes/Pages/CalendarDetail.aspx?EventID=3989>

Sponsored by Pediatric Education Services at Primary Children's Medical Center.